

Clue. Intelligence that wins business.

"In two decades of doing enterprise competitive intelligence, I have never seen a product more aligned with market need."

TIM RHODES, FORMER HEAD OF CI, ORACLE

Track your competitors, industries everywhere.

Too many companies, too much info, too much change. How do you keep track? With Clue, you unlock new insights and find new information hidden inside the company or on the Web:

- News alerts that scour 3.5M sites per day
- Website monitoring
- Instant sharing of any site you come across

Keep all intel in one place. Always current.

Clue helps companies continuously deliver up-to-date competitive insight to win more business. No more "once every 6 months" updates of your PPT's, docs, Wiki pages. Clue give you multiple ways to find and capture intel in real-time, curate it across the team, and share it with Sales/Partners immediately.

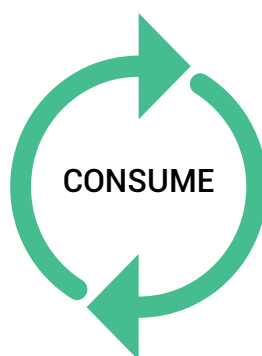

- Centralized, organized competitive profiles
- Filtered feed of relevant news by competitor or industry
- Team collaboration on any intel discovered

Collect intel shared by employees and sourced across the web

Curate and contextualize the content inside private hubs.

Distribute the intel inside Clue and existing platforms.
