klue
Intelligence that wins business.

Competitive intelligence effortlessly collected, curated and delivered to the people that rely on it.

Obsessing about your competitors

Too many companies, too much info, too much change. How do you keep track?

With Klue, you unlock new insights and new information hidden inside your company or the Web including:

- Internal systems co-workers share including email, Slack, chat, CRM
- Kluebot scours 3.5 million sources per day looking for competitive mentions
- Website monitoring for key changes, like pricing or positioning updates

Keep intel current and all in one place

Klue helps companies continuously deliver up-to-date competitive insight to win more business.

No more "once every 6 months" updates of your PPT's, docs, or Wiki pages. Klue creates "living pages" based on giving you multiple ways to find and capture intel in real-time, curate it across the team, and share it with sales or partners including:

- Centralized, organized competitive profiles
- Filtered feed of relevant news by competitor or industry
- Team collaboration on any intel discovered

Feature Highlights:

- Deliver "living" battlecards and profiles
- Centralized, organized competitive profiles
- Filtered feed of relevant news by competitor or industry
- Deliver weekly "top things" digests
- Team collaboration on any intel discovered
- Access via mobile app, web, email, Slack or SFDC
- Automatically pull intel from 3.5 million sources
